The suggestion had even been made that Austria should be left alone to fight Italy, but pledges taken by the German general staff were by the German emperor personally with Emperor Francis Joseph resulted in the promise of those advocating Austrian-German solidarity, even in the event of a war against Italy.

About 800,000 Bavarians and Hungarians have already been concentrated against Italy, Austria insuring them commissary service.

GERMANS PLAN FOR INVASION.

Although Field Marshal Conrad von Hotzendorf, chief of staff of the Austrian army, had prepared for a possible outbreak of war between Austria and Italy, the belief is held here that the campaign will be conducted by the German general staff, which will, it is said, plan a strong offensive movement against Italy in the event of breaking the Italian lines and forcing their way into Italian territory. Should such an attempt fail through the resistance of the Italian army, the Austrians and Germans would have to resort to defensive measures against a certain Italian offensive. Italian defenses are particularly strong and have been constructed everywhere, even along the Dalmatian coast, which is already protected by fixed and floating mines and armed by a strong force of marines, carrying German officers and sailors.

Austrian fleet is centered at Pola, with only a few torpedo boats and destroyers at Cattaro and Spalato. Other Austrian warships are in the Adriatic archipelago, on the northeast coast of the Adriatic sea. Naval men here do not consider it likely that the Austrian fleet will leave Pola unless forced to do so.

Italy Has Entered Conflict To Take "Unredeemed Italy" From the Grasp of Austria

Aside From the Dalmatian Islands, Territory Sought by Italy Includes About 8,000 Square Miles and 1,000,000 Inhabitants.

The entrance of Italy into the world war which began August 1, 1914, has been the subject of much discussion.

The number of states entered in the conflict to eleven, Italy, allied with France and Great Britain, since 1871 in the triple alliance, was called the "unredeemed Italy."

The Italian government has prepared a plan to take possession of the territory of these countries, and the Italian government has prepared a plan to take possession of the territory of these countries.

Prince von Bismarck, an astute German statesman, whose wife is an Italian woman, was sent to Rome. He heard that Italy was not to be trusted.

He offered Italy certain parts of the territory of these countries, and the Italian government has prepared a plan to take possession of the territory of these countries.

But her answer always was, "It is not to be trusted." Italy is not to be trusted.

In the meantime there had arisen in Italy a war party led by the "irreconcilables," who were determined to take possession of the territory of these countries.
